

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This is for general information of all concerned that between the verification and allotment the application data may be randomly checked by the concerned authority. During random checking, if any anomaly is detected, the applicants may receive calls, emails regarding the discrepancy. Necessary correction will be done by the concerned authority for these cases. The applicants receiving such calls/emails are requested to respond to the queries.